FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LINCOLN, Neb. – Seven Omaha-based Nebraska Army National Guard Soldiers will be welcomed back home to Nebraska after a six-month overseas deployment during a 6:30 p.m. ceremony Wednesday evening, April 12, at the Nebraska National Guard's North Omaha Readiness Center.

The Soldiers are members of an Army Special Operations Forces Support Operation (ASPO) Team from the Nebraska Army National Guard's 195th Forward Support Company (Special Operations) (Airborne). While deployed to the U.S. Central Command area of operations, the Nebraska Army National Guard Soldiers were responsible for coordinating, monitoring and synchronizing Joint/Combined Special Operations Forces logistics requirements.

Among those expected to speak during tomorrow's welcome home ceremony are Lt. Gov. Mike Foley and Brig. Gen. Kevin Lyons, Nebraska Army National Guard land component commander.

Due to space constraints, the sendoff ceremony is not open to the general public.
