MEMORANDUM FOR Warriors attending Warrior Leader Course (WLC)

SUBJECT: Warrior Leader Course Welcome Letter

1. CONGRATULATIONS! You have been selected to attend the 209th Regional Training Regiment (RTI-NE), NCO Academy WLC at Camp Ashland, Nebraska. You will report between the hours of 0800 and 1800 on the ATRRS report date. REPORT TO BLDG 501.
2. Warrior Leader Course consists of minimal classroom dynamics and practical application with an intense field training environment that involves hands-on, performance-oriented training. The course graduates leave equipped with standards-based, performance-oriented, battle-focused training that supports squad level operations. It provides the Army, with a leader who can visualize, describe, and execute squad level operations in varied operational environments. It is a leader course that produces a predictive, adaptive, and innovative combat leader capable of leading Soldiers in any situation.
3. Physical requirements for the course are very demanding. Students must be able to meet the following physical requirements: pass HT/WT and APFT standards, carry a 50 pound combat load, low crawl, high crawl, and rush for three to five seconds and negotiate rough terrain under varying climatic conditions.
4. Students who travel by air will fly into the Omaha, NE airport (Eppley Airfield). Students need to ensure that they arrive at the Omaha Airport between 0900 and 1600. Students should not fly into Lincoln. Eppley Airport in Omaha, NE is the only airport that transportation will be provided to Camp Ashland. Transportation is only available on the report date. Students who arrive prior to the report date or at another airport other than Eppley in Omaha are responsible for their own transportation to Camp Ashland.
5. Report in the Army Improved Physical Fitness Uniform (IPFU) to BLDG 501. You will be given the opportunity to change into your IPFU when you arrive. When you report you are required to have with you your military ID card and three copies of your orders. With the implementation of the new ATRRS Pre-execution Checklist (PRCL), students no longer need TRADOC Form 350-18-2-R-E (Jul 09, or ATTRs version). However if students report in a cancelled status because the pre-execution checklist wasn't completed 48 hours prior to the report date, they will need to have their units provide a signed copy of the TRADOC Form 350-18-2-R-E (Jul 09, or ATTRs version). You will also need your SSD1 completion certificate.
6. If you have a permanent profile of P2, you will need to have a properly completed DA Form 3349 dtd Feb 04 (this authorizes and substantiates your profile and informs us of your limitations for the course).

7. If your permanent profile is P3 or P4, you will need to have a properly completed DA Form 3349 AND MMRB cover letter. Your unit administrator or readiness NCO will be able to help you with these documents.

a. If you have a temporary profile, are in a recovery period from a temporary profile, or have a medical condition that is undiagnosed by military officials, you may be ineligible to attend. You or your unit must call us to determine your eligibility to attend this course.

b. Temporary Profile Exception: Commanders may send soldiers with temporary profiles that are directly related to duty performed in OIF/OEF. Soldiers must arrive with a copy of their current temporary profile and a memorandum signed by the commander stating that the profile is a direct result of injuries sustained due to duty performed during OIF/OEF. The soldier will train within the limits of his/her profile.
