MEDIA ADVISORY

LINCOLN, Neb. – Members of the media are invited to a send-off ceremony for 13 Nebraska Army National Guard Soldiers of Headquarters and Headquarters Troop, 1-134th Cavalry on Friday, March 17, 2023, beginning at 8:30 a.m. at the Atlas Readiness Center, 789 County Road J, Yutan, Nebraska, 68073.

Nebraska Governor Jim Pillen and Nebraska National Guard leaders will give remarks to the Soldiers and their families. This team is expected to serve a yearlong deployment to the U.S. European Command area of responsibility, where they will be stationed at a training center in Germany.

The team will conduct company-level mentoring to Armed Forces Ukraine counterparts for planning and execution operations in garrison and field environments. The team is requested to enhance logistics processes and refining noncommissioned officer and officer training and education to facilitate NATO interoperability.

Media availability for National Guard members may also take place after the ceremony by request.

Media planning to attend this event must RSVP to Staff Sgt. Lisa Crawford by phone, 402-309-8397, or by email to lisa.j.crawford2.mil@army.mil, by 4 p.m. Thursday, March 16.
