SUBJECT: Warrior Leader Course Welcome Letter

1. CONGRATULATIONS! You have been selected to attend the 209th Regional Training Regiment (RTI-NE), NCO Academy WLC at Camp Ashland, Nebraska. You will report between the hours of 0800 to 1800 on the ATRRS report date.
2. Warrior Leader Course consists of minimal classroom dynamics and practical application with an intense field training environment that involves hands-on, performance-oriented training. The course graduates leave equipped with standards-based, performance-oriented, battle-focused training that supports squad level operations. It provides the Army, with a leader who can visualize, describe, and execute squad level operations in varied operational environments. It is a leader course that produces a predictive, adaptive, and innovative combat leader capable of leading Soldiers in any situation.
3. Physical requirements for the course are very demanding. Students must be able to meet the following physical requirements: pass the APFT, pass HT/WT standards, carry a 50 pound combat load, low crawl, high crawl, and rush for three to five seconds, walk a minimum of 3200 meters for a minimum of three hours, and negotiate rough terrain under varying climatic conditions.
4. Students, who travel by air, will fly into Eppley Airport, Omaha, NE. Students need to ensure that they arrive at Omaha Airport between 1100 to 1800. The Omaha airport is the only airport that transportation is available from, transportation is only available on the report date. Students that arrive prior to the report date, or at another airport, are responsible for their own transportation. Driving directions are available on our web site at: <http://www.?????????.com/>.
5. Report in the Army Individual Physical Fitness Uniform (IPFU). When you report, you are required to have with you; your military ID card, three copies of your orders, and a Pre-execution checklist, TRADOC Form 350-18-2-R-E (Apr 07). A Pre-execution checklist (TRADOC FORM 350-18-2-R-E dtd Apr 2007), completely filled out (this means every block should be filled in), your first line leader, and you will initial all blocks. All the administrative data needs to be filled in. On page two (2), personal data and PULHES information need to be filled in. YOUR COMMANDER MUST SIGN THIS FORM, or provide a copy of the memorandum that gives delegation of authority to the Soldier who is signing for the commander. It is important that you have this form filled out correctly and in its entirety.
6. If you have a permanent profile of P2, you will need to have a properly completed DA Form 3349 dtd Feb 04 (this authorizes and substantiates your profile and informs us of your limitations for the course).

7. If your permanent profile is P3 or P4, you will need to have a properly completed DA Form 3349 AND MMRB cover letter. Your unit administrator or readiness NCO will be able to help you with these documents.

a. If you have a temporary profile, are in a recovery period from a temporary profile, or have a medical condition that is undiagnosed by military officials, you may be ineligible to attend. You or your unit must call us to determine your eligibility to attend this course.

b. Temporary Profile Exception: Commanders may send soldiers with temporary profiles due to participation in OIF/OEF. Soldiers must arrive with a copy of their current temporary profile and a memorandum signed by the commander stating the profile is a result of injuries sustained due to participation in OIF/OEF. The soldier will train within the limits of his/her profile.
